First off, as a wrestling fan Pro wrestling isn't essential. Second, the WWE has so many ties to Donald Trump it s morbidly funny. Linda McMahon is running one of his PACs. This smacks of corruption, which is par for the course for the Trump cabinet

Lie about it for 6 days. Then Trump finds out about it on Jan 27. Instills the travel ban from China (which China had failed to do). By that time thousands of people had traveled to and from China. But ppl want to blame Trump for the pandemic in the US. Okay

Americans are going to more than likely have to march on our State Capitals to get this country opened back up.

These governors will NOT want to relinquish power they've been given, and it's going to be interesting to see how this plays out. Especially in liberal states..

Lots of Northeastern states will likely not open for some time regardless of the situation. Here in PA, we're still a few weeks behind NY and NJ, and we haven't hit the curve quite yet. That alone will give them enough reason.

Philly should not speak for all of PA. the 9 counties around me have a total of 85 cases. no deaths in 600 nurse's being laid off between 5 hospitals. if we waiting Around for 0 cases we will never be free. it was about flattening the curve. the curve has been flattened

I'm concerned with two things in 2020, reporting the truth & getting Donald J. Trump re-elected in November.

If those aren't your concerns, then you probably have no reason to be following me.

At the end of the day, Trump must finish the job! #Trump2020

Mutiny on the Bounty was about the ruthless, unjust, tyrannical Captain Bligh of the HMS Bounty who shackled his own crew and tortured so many of his own men that they mutinied against him. It's fascinating that Trump sees himself as Captain Bligh. It's quite terrifying as well.

Can we at least stop referring to him as a doctor at this point? I know he has a medical degree, but he has been pushing WOO for $ for so long that anything he says shouldn't be taken seriously anyway. Nobody should criticize him because even that gives him legitimacy

The FDA needs to issue Emergency Use Authorizations for home coronavirus testing. This includes both home antigen testing using cotton swabs to be sent back for RT-PCR as well as home antibody testing using a fingerprick of blood. Without FDA approval for home testing we're lost.

It's beyond ridiculous that the FDA issues authorizations to use hydroxychloroquine for the coronavirus despite no evidence that it works and well documented cardiac side effects. Yet the FDA refuses to authorize home coronavirus testing that would greatly increase our abilities.

Honestly, letting women vote in this country wasn't one of the best ideas. Females vote with emotion and overwhelmingly support Democratic feel-good policies that take away our ACTUAL rights. I'd rather lose my "right" to vote than lose my right to defend myself with a firearm!

Will they explain the missing 21 million cell phone accounts closed, which only happens upon death? In China, you are required to have these cell phone accounts for all tracking. Can only be cancelled upon death. Over 21 million closed in one month.

The question now is how many of the 21 million cell phone users died from the virus and how many were dissidents that China "disappeared"

I've never said he was Q, and I didn't write the article. But people have a right to ask questions when someone makes such a claim. That's what we did. No one knows who Q is, and people are listening to a handful of large bullies like they're Messiahs on the subject, it's sick.

Yeah that is a total lie actually kids would build up antibodies against us virus and they're the safest from having any problems unless they have some kind of respiratory problem like asthma or something similar. The flu mutates and changes year to year. The CCP virus doesn't.

Another example of how the Q crowd reacts when you have an opinion & support Free Speech

Folks should be ashamed of those reacting this way trying to silence a voice It's despicable & against EVERYTHING that makes us Americans

I think this Covid-19 virus has exposed how absolutely ridiculous our litigious society is. A lot of these closings, I'm sure, were due to businesses fearing lawsuits from employees and customers that contract the virus. We need legal reform desperately.

Will they explain the missing 21 million cell phone accounts closed, which only happens upon death? In China, you are required to have these cell phone accounts for all tracking. Can only be cancelled upon death. Over 21 million closed in one month.

The question now is, how many of the 21 million cell phone users died from the virus and how many were dissidents that China "disappeared"

Stay safe Mr. President. While I disagree with you about much, an American media outlet ("CNN") is running propaganda from the Chinese military.

I guess this rollout, likely due to rushed necessity, isn't set in stone for everyone I know many who owed, paid by check, and got the stimulus.

He'll get handed a termination notice in one hand, and an indictment for crimes against humanity in the other.

What better end for Gates & that little Nazi then lethal injection.

Q is 100% connected to the Trump Team, it is very real.

That said, I believe the intent is a pacification campaign.

It's amazing the amount of people in a certain movement that want so silence Free Speech. It's actually quite alarming. We always re-share our articles on social media, on anything that we put out.

The Left now knows that if they ever regain power in the White House again, it's Game Over

They've proven with this test run that they can usher in socialism and take full control of America.

We've continued to let them take and take, and this generation has no fight in them.

COVID19 virus must think humans are all barmy. None of the tests I've ever had for anything has ever been guaranteed. So far they've given me a "clean bill of health" but I could get cancer next week. Just because a test in January says my bowels are OK doesn't mean they are now

I remember when I was in with Double Pneumonia in 2018, and nearly died. I spent 12 days in the Cardio Wing. The amazing Nurses and Doctors saved my life, I'm here today because of their hard work, guidance, and kindness.

They are true heroes and a gift from God.

I love My President and I will vote for him in November, but I'm sick of these damn press conferences. I don't care anymore. Get the DAMN Country OPEN AGAIN!

I'm tired of both sides talking, get America back to business and stop the tyranny.

My guess is the @NYTimes has come across explosive evidence that Biden is indeed guilty of the kind of crap that finished Matt Lauer. If they didn't have something about to break that would make them look bad for having changed that story, they'd stay silent

Right out of Hollywood. The "evil villain" holds the antidote and is prepared to "bargain"

It's not only the education. It's the toxins and heavy metals in everything we eat, drink along with what's injected into us that is dumbing us down. Top that with sub subpar curriculum that seems to be designed to confuse students and parents alike and you get what we have

It's time that the Department of Justice take a STRONG and DEEP LOOK into what American Congressional and Senate members are taking donations from China.

They must be prosecuted and removed from office. Their oath isn't for Americans, they back China!

you fragile goofball, we've explained this to you before: your numbers are high because the only people remaining in the GOP are dimwitted yokels and the grifters picking their pockets. 96% of them answered the poll and the other 4% were too busy sticking forks into wall sockets

We know Trump was serious, but let us for a moment accept his claim of sarcasm. Now consider how inappropriate it would be to use sarcasm about ingesting a lethal substance - and during a pandemic no less. His claim of sarcasm is also very inappropriate. Trump needs to be removed.

It's pretty clear to me that he never said Austin was Q. Strange how reading is fundamental if you just do it

Not surprising, they have met his claims with more than simple skepticism. They have attacked, harassed, and threatened Steinbart, but it isn't only him. The attacks spread to anyone who supports Austin or even so much as suggests keeping an open mind to the possibility of his claims being true.

... g. There is more than sufficient ... to support this claim but you will have to research and decide for yourself. This is MY conclusion

Last month all you heard from the Radical Left, Do Nothing Democrats was, “Ventilators, Ventilators, Ventilators.” They screamed it loud & clear, & thought they had us cold, even though it was the State’s task. But everyone got their V’s, with many to spare. Now they scream.

23K 31K 141K

Donald J. Trump @realDonaldTrump · Apr 20

“Testing, Testing, Testing,” again playing a very dangerous political game. States, not the Federal Government, should be doing the Testing - But we will work with the Governors and get it done. This is easy compared to the fast production of thousands of complex Ventilators!

Keep up the drum beat

- What did Trump do in February?
- What did he do, aside from going to rallies, weddings, fundraising events, playing golf, and praising China's President Xi?
- Why did Trump waste the whole of February?

The meeting between President Trump and Gov. Cuomo is a great idea.

They have been the real leaders in helping us through this.

But Andrew remember like I always tried to do with your Dad, I was just the Mayor, he was the Governor.

Let's make this way above politics.

Ladies and Gents, this November is much like 2016. I would honestly say it's bigger than 2016.
The elections that take place in November could very well set the stage for how our country moves forward from all this Coronavirus BS.

If they take control of the Senate, our President is done.

Just like in 2016 we have to go in full force and not only take back the house but make sure Republicans have full control.

Last month all you heard from the Radical Left, Do Nothing Democrats was, "Ventilators, Ventilators, Ventilators." They screamed it loud & clear & thought they had us cold, even though it was the State's task. But everyone got their V's, with many to spare. Now they scream.

If you're not reading Matt's work and his team you're not getting the full story. You're getting a story but not the story! Dan bongino also has a great website to absolutely destroy the Drudge report. Between Matt and Dan the facts will be proven. Great job Matt do not stop!!

I'm really getting tired of having to explain my tweets with crayons and picture books to people that are supposed to be part of the same movement I'm in.

Anyone else?

Comes with the territory. They're following you for a few tweets they liked but they can't handle it if you don't say what they like all the time. And then, they want to argue their case like it's their soap box. I never agree 100% with anyone I follow. That would be weird.

President Trump taking shots at the Georgia Governor was probably the worst mistake he's made in his campaign so far..

Love him, I'll vote for him, but that was absolutely ridiculous, and NOT the sentiments of his base by any means.

There are too many small businesses that will never survive this..

Things you're hearing from the media and politicians simply aren't true. They can't afford to remain open just doing "take out"..

This is absurd, America must Open or the Recovery will take YEARS.

How many of you have realized that these Governors in America have bypassed the Bill of Rights..

They can now come into your homes to see if you have 10 or more people without a warrant..

I'm embarrassed by the so called conservatives going along with this insanity.

It's the same people right or left that find an article headline that matches their google search to try and support an argument, but don't actually read the article. Which often times doesn't exactly support the point they want to make.

Hell No we didn't. Would we have liked a shout out, of course we would, but we didn't get it.

Sounds great, but we still have to wear masks at TX parks while 6' apart and only in groups of 5. I know several families that would have to split up! They don't want healthy people, they want you to be fearful to be around each other! Praying common sense kicks in soon.

Maybe it's just a show by Abbott that he is complying. It's 80 degrees+ this week. Masks while in the fresh air and 6' + away from everyone make no sense

Also Matt, my question was forthright and has nothing to do with a "movement". I don't consider myself part of the Q movement, and I would question any news outlet, MSM or otherwise, that re-released debunked falsehoods. That's all. You explained to everyone why you did it. Cheers

Hmm. This could be precisely how the DNC gets to insert their chosen one as their candidate. Wouldn't surprise me at all if the DNC themselves didn't dig up the Tara Reid accusations precisely for this reason. They don't trust their voters to make the right choice so.

Great News! Randall Stephenson, the CEO of heavily indebted AT&T, which owns and presides over Fake News @CNN, is leaving, or was forced out. Anyone who lets a garbage "network" do and say the things that CNN does, should leave ASAP. Hopefully replacement will be much better!

What about NON-CUSTOMER FACING BUSINESSES?

There are plenty of businesses of that type which are a heck of a lot safer to re-open
Accountants, lawyers, engineering firms, manufacturing companies, etc

Is he reopening every kind of business except this? "Bars, nightclubs, live performance venues will remain closed until further notice."

If Congress cannot work until May then They are deemed Non Essential workers and should be forced on furlough with the rest of America not getting paid. Let the Squad file for unemployment and wait a month or two with zero income.

Statistics also show that these people spend the majority of their income back into the local communities that they live, thus pushing and helping boost local economies. So raising their wages actually makes sense to a degree

Minimum wage jobs are mostly entry level jobs. Raising the MW will cause employers to either hire fewer people or raise prices to afford the raises. This means the higher wages are lost in higher prices.
Those areas that adopted $15 MW lost a lot of businesses therefore jobs.

Any chance the media could start doing stories on the survivors of CoronaVirus since that's like 98%, instead of spreading fear, anxiety, and depression?

Every Mainstream Media Outlet from Fox News to CNN should be ashamed of how they've covered this.

We're not made stronger by hiding out in homes. It's time to go out & play.
God made our bodies to fight off infections causing us to develop immunities or we'd all be dead!
The weak sick elderly will die & eventually we'll all get there; that's life
We'd better start living it!

90% of this Country doesn't have the fortitude or courage to do or say what's right. Those are the facts. I assure you I've done more in the last 3 years fighting for this Republic than you ever could.

Strange that we've never heard Dr. Fauci or Dr. Birx mention that Americans should be eating more fruits and vegetables, taking a vitamin C supplement, taking a multivitamin, etc. etc. etc..

Would that be something that should be encouraged during a viral pandemic?

People do realize that 42,000 Americans haven't actually died FROM COVID-19, right?

The guidelines for coding a COVID-19 deaths are VERY liberal to say the least. To make it worse, it is very lucrative to code deaths as COVID-19 and hospitals are hurting financially.

The guy running VOP isn't even a Vet, he's a fraud. You should try doing some research as Sawyer has explained this a million times over

I'd love for some of these keyboard warriors to say this to Sawman's face. wish you luck, you'll need it.

"Very Quickly"?
I've been following this Democrat, Deep State, Liberal, Socialism, Major Media Alinsky "Rules for Radical" Cloward&Piven "Strategy" BS to attempt to "take down America" for nearly 50 years. It has merely become More Obvious because they are not hiding it Anymore
